

Technician or Sub Contractor Role – Security/CCTV/Access Control

We have an exciting opportunity for a technician to join our technical team providing installation, commissioning and service for our commercial and corporate clients across healthcare, aged care, local government and federal government and commercial sectors.

100% Australian Owned, national company, Great growth opportunity.

Job Summary

Our growing business needs a technician full time to join our company. Providing field service and technical support to our customers and stakeholders. Focusing on site installations, repair, maintenance and compliance tasks. As a technician, you will be travelling to customers' sites, remotely accessing equipment and performing routine maintenance checks.

Our company has excellent company culture which is the foundation of our business.

Our focus is for long term relationships with employees, clients and suppliers who match our company values and cultures. We hope you are the person who will be joining our team.

As a successful candidate your main duties will include although are not limited to:

- Service
- Installation
- Commissioning
- CCTV
- Access Control
- Intercom
- Duress
- Security

To qualify for this role, you will be required to have the following:

- Minimum 3-year + experience in security and electrical industry
- Experiences in Axis, Inner Range Infiniti, Tecom C4, Genetic, Lenel, Gallagher and Miracle.
- Hold a current Private Security Registration, (willing to obtain)
- Cabling license & white card – must have
- Technical skills and/or experience related to electronic security systems.
- Valid Victorian driver's license; ability to travel across Melbourne
- Working with Children
- National Police Check

Ideally the successful candidate will also possess the following:

- Moderate experience & understanding of IP network environments
- Display leadership skills and lateral thinking
- Have excellent communication and people skills, able to deal directly with clients.
- Understand fault finding and corrective action
- The ability to work unsupervised and have a high level of problem-solving skills

We will support the right candidate and provide additional training to develop skill sets and knowledge base.

Personal Attributes

- Preferred security experience
- Excellent interpersonal communication skills
- Good organisation skills
- Willingness to learn
- Self motivated and comfortable working autonomously

Benefits

As a technician will be provided with a company car, laptop, mobile phone, PPE

As a sub contractor you will need to provide your own vehicle, phone, laptop and PPE

Contact hr@ktr.com.au to apply or if more questions.